

THE FIRST REUNION -- 1960

It was held in Cleveland at the home of Marion Abell Ecclestone. Family Trees were presented to all the immediate branches of the family.

ALECK SINCLAIR'S PROGENY - EDWARD AND HIS FAMILY. ALECK THE ELDEST SON OF THE ELDEST SON OF THE 1st. ALEXANDER SINCLAIR: EDWARD LEONARD SINCLAIR

ALECK SINCLAIR & MARION ECCLESTONE
1st. COUSINS

ALECK SINCLAIR, HIS SON EDWARD G.
AND GRANDSONS SANDY, IAN AND RORY

AUG 60

Alexander
Sinclair III

Dr. Edward
Sinclair

Maj. Alec
Sinclair

Rory
Sinclair

All gather to hear Scottish songs at Sinclair Clan reunion yesterday

Plain Dealer Photo (Robert J. Quinlan)

'Surprise Guest' of Clan Revives Old Friendship

A retired interior decorator crashed the reunion of the Clan Sinclair yesterday—but was a welcome guest.

Fred D. Ker, 75, of 480 E. 114th Street, had read about the reunion and the guest of honor Maj. Alec Sinclair. Since he had served in the Forty-Eighth Highlanders Regiment in 1902 with Maj. Sinclair, Ker decided to pay a visit.

"We talked over old times and many of our friends," Ker said. "I think the major was glad to see me. I know I was glad to see him."

The reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford

P. Ecclestone, 307 Bishop Road, Highland Heights. More than 50 relatives, all descended from Alexander Sinclair, who immigrated to Canada in 1840, were present.

Maj. Sinclair, who lives in Toronto, appeared in the clan tartan, as did his son, Dr. Edward Sinclair, and two grandsons, Alexander (Sandy) III, and Rory. Rory also entertained with Scottish songs on his bagpipes.